

JOEL C. GIULIANI
OPERATIONS MANAGER

After ten years in the construction industry in Texas, Joel moved to Colorado and joined CornerStone in July 1999 in our service department. Having received certification from our largest supplier, he was promoted to Installation Manager in 2003 and since September 1, 2005, manages all aspects of installations and service. His commitment to customer service coupled with his tenacity in problem-solving problems is one of his greatest strengths.
